

KRESGE NEWS Honors Top Reporters from Each Region

Five KRESGE NEWS report-ers, one from each region, won Reporter of the Year awards for 1969. There was also an abund-ance of honorable mentions — a total of 29. These outstanding people were selected from a field of over 900 reporters represent-ing stores in the United States and Puerto Rico.

What makes a good reporter? A tarp ear for human interest tidits, accuracy and completeness in porting and a constant desire to beer deadlines are all traits of the condition newspaper.

CENTRAL REGION

CENTRAL REGION
An honorable mention last year, an O'Brokta, Kresge 28, Cleveand, O., has now achieved the tuss of being the best reporter in a region. He has been with the resge Company 13 years, all of mn at 28. Two of these years re spent as a KRESGE NEWS outer.

Stan's many jobs around the store include trimming windows, painting counter signs and display work. He states: "As I am all over the floor, I am able to observe and ask for any available news."

Besides the counter signs he paints for 28, Stan also does sign work for over a dozen stores in the Cleveland area in his spare time. Photography is another well-loved hobby of his; he owns five cameras and claims his wife is his favorite model.

No-Iron Sheets Rise in Popularity

No-iron fashion sheets are growing in popularity with the American housewife, states Buyer Raymond G. Werschky.

The buyer reports Cannon's newest "Daisy Lace" no-iron sheets that appeared in Kreage, K mart and select Jupiter stores at the end of the year are selling like specials. This pattern is made in standard sizes now and Cannon hopes to have king and queen size soon. Pink is the best selling color although the pattern can be purchased in blue and gold.

Because they were so popular in 1969, the company did more busi-ness in fashion sheets than in plain white sheets. Young America is asking for fancy fashion goods for every room in the home.

Says Mr. Werschky: "The sheet usiness has grown rapidly in the ast few years. All sheets generate bout one-third of the total dry oods business."

Soft line departments.

Eather has been with the company for 18 years and has spent the last 13 years at Kreege 65.

Trenton, N. J. She has been store reporter for the past ten years and except for an honorable mention in her first year, has won top honors each year.

honors each year.

Besides leading an active life at Kresge 65, Esther is also involved in extra-curricular activities, including church work. She is president of her church's missionary society, sccretary of the "In-betweners", and is a member of her pastor's advisory board and of the nursery staff. Each year this top-notch reporter works with the Delaware Valley United Fund as the key woman for the store. According to Esther, these activities, her job and eight grandchildren keep her mighty busy.

Asked whether there, were any

Asked whether there were any rewards that she received as store reporter, Eather replied: "It is very satisfying to see our store in the news. We eagerly look forward to the arrival of our paper every mosth."

MIDWESTERN REGION

Reporter of the Year for the Mid-western Region is Iryne Koenig, bookkeeper at K mart 4095, Joliet, Ill., and a 21-year member of the

As store reporter for the last 14 years, Iryne gathers her news by visits among the store's employees. By being reporter, Iryne feels she gets the opportunity to become better acquainted with her fellow staffers and it also provides a closer relationship with them.

This chief newsgatherer leads an active social life. She is a member and reporter for the Kresge-ites and K mart Klippers. Iryne's hobbies include astrology, numerology, coin collecting and photography.

SOUTHERN REGION

Mary Pugh, credit supervisor at K mart 4063, Alexandria, La., says gathering news at 4063 is a store-wide project. All employees con-tribute newsworthy tidbits.

This Southern Region Reporter of the Year believes that being involved in all store activities helps in gathering news. Another added factor is the camera department's willingness to take pictures whenever necessary.

Mary states: "It's always a pleasure to share the accomplish-ments and successes of the store with the rest of the Kresge family."

She's been a member of this same family at 4063 for four years now, two of them working as a KRESGE NEWS reporter.

When she's not finding out th "who, what, when, where or why of an event, Mary indulges in few outdoor activities like bad minton, swimming or fishing. Sew ing and reading also top her lis of favorite hobbies.

WESTERN REGION

Another personnel supervisor accorded the honor of best re-porter in her region is Ann Wood, K mart 4187, Denver, Colo.

Having been an employee of the company for three years now, she has been with 4187 since its grand opening. Ann "inherited" the reporter's job two years ago along with the job of personnel super-

Central Region: Barbara Peters, 4145, Mt. Clemens, Mich.; Agnes Poquette, 4096, Saginaw, Mich.; Maxine Matherly, 4124, Terre Haute, Ind.; Joann Yotkewich, 117, Terre Haute, Ind.

D.O. Names Dress Drive Wi

Thanks to Detroit Office employees, there were smiles on many little girls' faces this past Christmas morning.

Many D. O. office workers contributed their spare time to make a dress for the Ruth Alden Dress Drive. Those who weren't as handy with a needle and thread, donated money to buy dresses for little underprivileged girls in the Detroit area.

First place winner in the dress

Detroit area.

First place winner in the dress contest was Jewell Blair, mailing department, who received a cash award for her creative efforts. Other staffers receiving cash award were Susan Frame and Julia Kumulchik of the traffic department; Mrs. Robert Kelsey, wife of Robert Kelsey on the controller's staff; and Lillie Grochowski in data processing at the Southfield Office. All handmade dresses were on display in the ladies' lounge.

Paper Publishes Note From Grateful Shopper

The following thank you to some of the members of the staff at Kresge 414, Essex, Md., appeared in the letters to the editor column of The News American:

"A big thanks to the manager (Lewis Meyer, assistant to the manager) of the Kresge store in the Middlesex Shopping Center During my first visit there, I dropped my cosmetics and broke them. The manager not only replaced them, but he was very kind, as were the clerks (Eleanor Webb and Lillian Kaplan). Now I'll always be a customer."

Kresge Introduces Tailored Styles In Blouse Program

A blouse program that heen followed for 11 years heen dropped in favor of two natilored blouses made to look a feel like silk.

The standard $1.99 blow now discontinued for $2.99 blo of 80 percent dacron polyester 20 percent combed cotion clot Klopman. The two new blows both in basic styles that ca worn for all kinds of activ from sports to shopping at the supermarket.

supermarket.

Associate Edmund S, Sly about the reason behind the duction of tailored blouse Kreage stores: "In the intergarments of finer quality, vi twas time for a change."

The tailored blouses have up sleeves and come in an ment of colors. The stamp of manent press" makes this s must for all busy women makers.

WILL YOU BE MY VALENTINE? A P